Much Married Miss Lilly is Mrs. Crosby and Mrs. Goodman.

WEDDED ONCE IN CAMDEN

Then She Tired of No. 1 and Wrote to Her Old Flame-Neither Man Knew of the Other's Existence Arrested on a Bigamy Charge and Held Under Ball.

Maude Lilly, who was married in Camden N. J., to John V. Goodman on August 2 last, was arrested on a charge of bigamy yesterday by Detective Boardman, and y.eaded guilty to the charge before Judge Kimball this morning.

Miss Lilly was engaged at the time of ber marriage to Mr. George W. Crosby, of Pottsville, but living now in this city. Miss Lilly met Mr. Goodman, however, in Camden, and married him on the date mentioned, without letting Mr. Crosby, her betrothed, know anything about it. She lived with Mr. Goodnan about a month and got tired of him, and then wrote to Crosby that she would like to come to Washington and get married.

Mr. Crosby agreed, and Mrs. Goodman thereupon packed her stached and came on On September 18 they were married at Wesley Chaple by Rev. Charles W. Baldwin, she declaring to both Crosby and the minister that she was not and never had been married before.

WROTE TO NUMBER ONE

WROTE TO NUMBER ONE. Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, or rather Mr. Cos-by and Mrs. Goodman, then located at No. 608 E street, from where Mrs. Goodman wrote to husband No. 1 that she did not bve him any more and was not coming wrote to husband No. 1 that she did not bve him any more and was not coming back to him.

Mr. Goodman looked into the matter, found out that she had been married again, came on to Washington and swore out a warrant charging her with bigamy. This is the case as it was presented it court this morning and as Mrs. Goodman or Maude Lilly or Mrs. Crosby pleaded guilty to the charge, his honor held her in $500 bond for the grand Jury.

In an interview with Mr. Crosby, he told a Times reporter that Maude had written him from Franklin street, Philadelphia, and he went on there and brought her to Washington. He knew nothing about her being married. He had been engaged to her for a year, and had corresponded with her continually under an assumed name, as her mother had always sbjected to him

Mr. Goodman said to a Times reporter that his wife had taken considerable jewelry that belonged to him and some money, and when he got home and found her missing he began at once to find out a here she had gone.

ROSBY HAD BEEN THERE.

TROSBY HAD BEEN THERE. He heard accidentally that Crosby had been to the house that day, and Goodman came immediately to Washington and re-ported the case to police headquarters. It took them some time to locate the couple, but they were finally found at 608 E street northwest.

Mrs Goodman does not seem to realize her position at all, and apparently thinks he whole matter a huge joke. Neither of the husbands seem to care much about pushing the case. They both seem to care a great deal for her. Mr. Crosby is a stair-builder, and Mr. Goodman a steam-fitter, and both are nice dooking and respectable young men.

Miss Lilly lived here for several years with her aunt, who keeps a boarding house at No. 407 G street. Miss Lilly was asked if she wouldn't rather fix the matter up and go back to her real husband, but she replied that she would rather go to jail.

American's Terrible Experience While Imprisoned in Cuba. St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 20 .- Charles 8 Hughes, the poet-printer, who has been with the insurgents in Cuba, is now in St. Louis. In an interview to-day he tells of his experience in the Cuban service last April for ten days and his capture, with nineteen others, by the Spanlard "We were condemned to be shot," he said, "on July 21. The evening of July 19 we learned of the approach of Maceo and were assured that he and his battalions ould arrive in time to save us. "At this time we were in a dung ot high enough for a man to stand in. It was filthy and unfit- for a human to stay in. At miduight the rebels charged into town, cut down the guard of fifty nen and rescued us. We were all given irms and joined. After defeating the Spaniards and capturing a lot of supplies we retired to the hills."

"What is the composition of the Cuban

"It is not and has never been a race war. That report was false and was one of the many similar reports sent out by he army of Spain to mislead the people of be world. The Cuban army is composed of the best element of the island, planters merchants, mechanics, etc., and about me-third of the entire army come from the Inited States."

Granted a New Trial After Six Years

Joliet, 111., Sept. 26.-After serving dx years of a fourteen years' sentence in the penitentiary. Miss Betle Egan, of Pana, Ill., has just been granted a new trial by Judge Dibell, of the Will county

Miss Egan and her lover were arreste 1888 at Pana for killing a Chinaman During the progress of her trial one of the urymen became sick and the judge was compelled to excuse him. Both sides con ented to continue with eleven men. The result was that the girl was con victed and sentenced. After a period of six years her friends moved for her re The principal point urged by her attorney was that his client's conviction was illegal from the fact that but eleven

It makes no difference, he claimed, that both sides agreed to the number after one juryman had been taken sick, because the crime charged was felony, and required twelve men. On this ground the court orders a new trial.
